Subject: Letter of Support for the Tree of Prophets Initiative

Assalamu Alaikom Wa Rahmatu Allahe Barakatuh,,

On behalf of the Australian National Imams Council (ANIC), the peak representative body for Imams and Muslim communities across Australia, we express our support and endorsement for the Tree of Prophets initiative and its associated online educational platform.

This initiative, developed by a team well known to ANIC members, represents an authentic, visually engaging, and spiritually enriching contribution to Islamic education. The Tree of Prophets artwork beautifully illustrates the chronological lineage and stories of the Prophets (peace be upon them), supported by clear references from the Holy Qur'an. It serves as a compelling visual tool that effectively engages Muslims of all ages, as well as non-Muslims, with the core messages of Prophethood and divine guidance.

Since its display in local mosques, the artwork has attracted widespread attention, bringing individuals and families together to reflect on the lives and messages of the Prophets (peace be upon them). Its clarity and accessibility make it an ideal educational tool for schools, community centres, and Islamic institutions.

We are particularly encouraged by the upcoming launch of the Reveeled interactive online course, which will expand the project's reach globally. By transforming the original content into a comprehensive digital platform, this initiative opens new avenues for meaningful da'wah and education. It empowers both Muslims and non-Muslims to deepen their understanding of Islamic history and teachings in a format that is engaging, authentic, and easy to access.

ANIC recognises and supports this initiative as a valuable contribution to Islamic learning and community engagement.

We commend the dedication and vision of the Tree of Prophets initiative team, and we ask Allah the Almighty to continue to bless this initiative and allow it to be a source of guidance, knowledge, and inspiration for generations to come.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Imam Shadi Alsuleiman
President
Australian National Imams Council (ANIC)
